We are committed to protecting personal information. Records and personal information are released in compliance with the federal Driver Privacy Protection Act of 1994 (DPPA), and Washington State laws. These laws restrict redisclosure of personal information obtained from vehicle and vessel records, and protect owners from unsolicited business contact. Authorized recipients may only redisclose information or contact owners as permitted by law. There is no guarantee your request will be approved. See authorities at the bottom of page 2 of this application.

Answer the following Provide a detailed explanation of your primary business activity (exactly what your business or agency does and how you will use the vehicle and vessel records). I am a lawyer, representing consumers. I help consumers who have disputes with new and used car dealerships. If a client has purchased a used car, it is often helpful and necessary to have an accurate history of the car and its title.
Will you contact the owner for any purpose, provide the registration record information to an attorney or private investigator, or to any other persons or businesses? Use this space to describe how you will contact the owner or disclose the information or state that you will not disclose it and will not contact the owner. This is required information. I will only obtain the record information at the request of the owner in order to either determine if they have a legal claim or help facilitate litigation for the owner.

You may not use the personal information contained in a vehicle or vessel registration record for unsolicited business contact. Unsolicited business contact means a contact that is intended to result in, or promote, the sale of any goods or services to a person named in the disclosed information. Disclosure of names and addresses of individual owners — RCW 46.12.635(1)(c).

When disclosing a vehicle or vessel registration record to a private investigator or an attorney, you must provide a notice to the owner, to whom the information applies, that the request was granted. The notice must comply with RCW 46.12.635(4)(a)(b)(c), describing you as the disclosing entity, and must be mailed to the owner within 5 working days of disclosure. You may not use DOL's name, logo, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses or the state seal in your notification letter. You must retain a copy of the notification letters for three years from the date of disclosure, or from the date of termination of your contract, whichever occurs first, and produce copies of the letters upon a request by the DOL. Failure to send a notification letter is a violation of your contract and Washington State laws. A sample notification letter is at the DOL website: <https://fortress.wa.gov/dol/ivipsprod/ContractForms.aspx>.

The sale or other distribution of any vehicle or vessel owner name or address to another person not disclosed in your request or application is a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail for 364 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each violation. Disclosure violations, penalties — RCW 46.12.640.

Knowingly making a false statement or concealing a material fact required in this application or making false representation to obtain any personal information from an individual's motor vehicle record is also subject to federal criminal fines under the DPPA.

IVIPS record fees: There is a 4-cent fee per record search, and businesses must pay an additional $2 for each record accessed. Government entities are exempt from the $2 fee. Contract holders are invoiced monthly.
